LADIES' DELIGHT!
RELIEF COME AT LAST.
I have just received, from the United States, a new, large, and with me fitted on the bottom, also on the outside of the rubber. It stands on a stool, and weighs about 25 lbs; is simple and handy, and has been thoroughly examined and tried by thousands at the West within the past year, who pronounce it to be the best labor saver ever offered to the public. It has been tested sufficiently long to prove that when ever it is used properly, it will tell a better story for itself than I can communicate.
Give it a trial, and you will be entirely satisfied of its superior merit.

AMERICAN AND FOREIGN PATENTS
R. H. EDDY, SOLICITOR OF PATENTS (Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837.)
NO. 75 STATE, OPPOSITE KILBY ST., BOSTON.

AFTER an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, anxious to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries—Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions,—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by if not immeasurably superior to any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below give proof that none is MORE successful AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate.
The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining patents.
All necessary of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there are here saved.

TESTIMONIALS.
"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most influential and successful practical men with whom I have had official intercourse."
CHAS. MASON, Com. Ex-aminer of Patents
"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an easy and rapid consideration at the Patent Office."

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Com. Ex-aminer of Patents.
Boston, February 8, 1858.
"Mr. R. P. Eddy, a man for me THIR-TEEN applications on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that one is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges."
JOHN TAGGART.

From Sept. 17th, 1857, to June 17th, 1858,
the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made, on twice rejected applications, SIX-TEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.

HARRY COVERDALE'S COURTSHIP, AND WHAT CAME OF IT.

'Not enough to anitate a kitten, I should imagine,' was the reply; 'not that the man is a fool; indeed, in his own line he is said to be clever—he invented some device to simplify his machinery, by which he nearly doubled his fortune.' That was decidedly clever,—remarked Harry, busily engaged in dressing 'Skye' in a multi-anti-missouri, placed clean upon the sofa that morning.

'To come to the point, however,' continued Hazlehurst:—'I want you to see the man, and try and find out what he's made of.'

'Fools—flash probably,'—suggested Coverdale sotto voce.

'I wish you would try and beserious for five minutes,' returned Hazlehurst testily, 'nothing is more provoking than small attempts at wit, when one wants a man to give his attention sensibly to that which one is saying.'

'I stand, or more properly, sit corrected, to continue, in st sapient and surly brother,'—was the mocking answer.

Hazlehurst tried to look angry and dignified, but a glance at his friend's handsome, merry, and withal slightly impudent face, disarmed his wrath, and muttering—'Confound you for a stupid, provoking old humbug!'—he burst into a fit of laughter. As soon as he had recovered his gravity, he resumed—'As I said before, I want you to come and make your observations on the cotton-spinner, and if your opinion agrees with mine, you must back me up in making a serious remonstrance with the governor. I know the old boy well, and am sure he'll think twice as much of what I say when he finds that you, a man of the world and a large landed proprietor (that'll tell with him immensely) look upon the matter in the same light. And now you know my reasons, what do you say?'

REPUBLICAN NOMINATION.
FOR REPRESENTATIVE TO CONGRESS,
EASTERN DISTRICT,
THOMAS DAVIS, OF NORTH PROVIDENCE.

TUSCANY.—By the last European arrival we learn that the Provisional Government of Tuscany has inaugurated its legislative career by a decree abolishing the punishment of death, without distinction of persons.

By other decrees, the grand ducal ordinance of 1848, which prohibited the public press, is repealed; the two universities of Pisa and Siena are re-established; the late Ministers of the Grand Duke are dismissed, as also Gen. Ferrari, commander-in-chief of the Tuscan army; and Count de Cambray Digby is appointed civil commissary to the corps of observation.

Excepting the Austrian Minister, none of the representatives of foreign powers at Florence have taken down their escutcheons; those of Sardinia, France, and England have entered into official relations with the Provisional Government. The latter has authorized six persons to wear the medal of St. Helena, conferred on them by the Emperor of the French. The horses belonging to the grand ducal body guard have been turned over to the artillery. A corps of observation has been stationed at Le Filigore, a frontier town on the Bologna road, and bodies of infantry and artillery have been detached to Massa and Carrara, Gen. Ullio himself having proceeded thither to take certain military precautions. The following is the proclamation issued by him on assuming the command of the Tuscan army:

"Tuscan soldiers! You cannot remain passive spectators when the cannon perhaps already roars in Italy against Austria. How can the brave men who fought at Curtatone not obey the appeal of the heroes of Pastrengo, Goito, and Tcherny? Tuscan soldiers, hasten to swell the army of the brave and loyal Victor Emmanuel, it is no longer the army of Piedmont—it is the army of Italy. Join the Piedmontese and the sons of generous France under the tricolor—the banner we untold to sustain the struggle of our common independence. Let us all join, from the Alps to both seas; in sacred ranks, we shall be strong and invincible. Discipline, courage and constancy, and the God of victory will stand by us. On, therefore! Italy forever!"

One of the first acts of the Provisional Government has been the issuing of a decree that will carry hope and joy into many a humble home, and spread confusion and dismay among the Jesuitical partisans of a bigoted and intolerant oppression. "The Provisional Government," a proclamation of Saturday announces, "has decreed, and decrees that there be restored to full authority the 2d and 11th articles of the charter of February 15, 1848, thus drawn up: Article 2. 'All Tuscan, whatever religious belief they may profess, are equal in face of the law, contribute without distribution to the burdens of the State in proportion to their property, and are all equally admissible to civil and military employments.' Article 11. The laws of military enlistment are obligatory on all the citizens."

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

The following will be the order of procession on Tuesday the 31st inst., at the inauguration of the State Government for the year ensuing.

The procession will form in front of the Fillmore House, at 10 o'clock, A. M., in the following order:

Gillmore's Band.
Newport Artillery Company Col. Turner.
Providence Brass Band.
Providence Artillery, Col. Blanding.
Deputy Sheriffs.
High Sheriff Newport County.
His Excellency the Governor.
High Sheriff Providence County.
His Honor, the Lieut. Governor.
Secretary of State and General Treasurer.
Attorney General and State Auditor.
High Sheriff of Washington County.
Chaplain of the House of Representatives.
Chaplain of the Senate.
High Sheriffs of the Counties of Bristol and Kent.
Members of the Senate.
Members of the House of Representatives.
City Marshal and City Sergeant of the City of Newport.
His Honor the Mayor.
Members of the City Council.
Court of Magistrates.
The Clergy.
Citizens and Strangers.

The procession will move through Catherine Street into South Touro Street, along South Touro to John Street, down John to Spring Street, along Spring to Canon St., down Canon to Thames Street, up Thames street to the Parade, and up the Parade to the State House, where the two branches of the Government will repair to their respective Halls for organization.

After the votes have been counted and the elections declared from the balcony of the State House, the usual salute will be fired under the direction of Col. Turner and the procession will be formed again, and escort the Governor elect to the Atlantic House, where he will be saluted by the Artillery Company.

All obstructions to the order of the procession must be removed from the Streets, and no carriages will be allowed in Thames Street during the moving of the procession. The ordinance against blowing of tin horns near the procession, will be strictly enforced.

WM. DOUGLAS LAKE,
May 27, 1859.

The U. S. Light Artillery from Fort Adams will not take part in the military escort on Election Day, as appears from the following note received by Sheriff Lake, on Saturday evening:

FORT ADAMS, R. I.
May 28th, 1859.
Wm. D. Lake, Sheriff Newport Co.:
Sir—In the absence of Col. Magruder, I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your favor of the 18th inst.

The rules and customs of the service requiring a muster and inspection of the troops at every post on the last day of the month, and that being the day upon which the inauguration takes place, necessitates my declining your invitation for the Command to take a part in the military escort on that occasion.

I am, Sir, your most obt. servant,
R. G. CURVEY,
Lieut. Commanding, Fort Adams.

HOTEL ITEMS.—The Bellevue, Fillmore, and Atlantic Houses open for the season to-day. Gov. Dyer will take rooms at the "Fillmore," and Gov. Turner at the "Atlantic."

Mr. W. W. Hazard, the proprietor of the Fillmore, has engaged the same band of Germanians who last year enlivened his house with their excellent music, and we understand that the proprietors of the Ocean House have also made arrangements with our old friend Holmsmuller, to supply them with an orchestra. The Belle Vue will, as usual, have a fine orchestra, exclusively for its own benefit.

SONS OF TEMPERANCE.—There was a large gathering of the Sons and Daughters of Temperance and their friends, at the Hall of Atlantic Division, No. 6, last Friday evening, to listen to a lecture by Rev. U. H. Malcom. A large delegation of Odd Fellows, from Rhode Island Lodge No. 12, in Pawtucket, were also present by special invitation.

The opening exercises consisted of reading the Scriptures and prayer by the Chaplain of the Division, and singing by a select choir. The lecture by Mr. Malcom we consider as one of his happiest efforts. It was temperance from beginning to end, rich in thought, and abounding in good logic and sound argument. We regret that our limits will not admit of our giving a synopsis of the whole. As it is, we can only give a few brief extracts from the closing portion.

Looking, said the speaker, away from the theory of this organization, (which he had just previously explained,) to its practical workings, it seems yet the people entitled to the appreciation of every philanthropist. Thus, if we regard its numerical influence, we perceive that the Order having been originated in the year 1842, by a few earnest men, it yet numbered, ten years afterwards, 300,000 members, in North America alone; and at this time, we suppose it has a membership, embracing the Divisions of all the countries, of not less than one million. Or, if we consider it as to the money which it contributes in sustaining the principles of temperance, we find that, according to the reports rendered every year by the Grand National Division, an aggregate amount has been contributed since the establishment of the Order, in this country alone, of about thirteen millions of dollars; and, if we add to this amount the sums which have been given by the European Divisions, we have a grand total of not less than twenty-six millions of dollars spent, within a period of about seventeen years, by the Sons of Temperance, in aid of this humane and moral cause. Or, if we still further examine the practical workings of our organization, by considering the influence which it has brought to bear against the evil of intemperance by means of oratory and the press, we discover that, in the report of the M. W. Sorbo to the National Division, for the year 1853, it is stated that, within that term, about 600,000 temperance tracts had been distributed, several temperance magazines and newspapers supported, and about 20,000 public temperance meetings had been held; and, if we take the work done that year in this direction as an average of that accomplished other years, we may perceive, at a glance, what a tremendous influence has been brought to bear, through the press and by means of public discussion, against intemperance.

By all these modes combined, the Sons of Temperance have wielded an influence for good, in this department of philanthropy, beyond human calculation. In face of these facts, every one, who desires that society may be freed from the terrible scourge of intemperance, and who wishes that love, purity and fidelity may rule the homes and hearts of all, should aid by his sympathy, and, if possible, by his personal co-operation, an Order which forms so prominent a wing in the great army of reform, morality, and religion.

The bottom came out of steamer Curlew, and her cargo and engine falling through, she floated and was towed into port by tugs. Rescue and Police about 12 o'clock yesterday. We learn that one of the divers had his foot badly crushed Saturday, by the rolling of the vessel upon it while he was under her bottom. It is thought the engine and a portion of the cargo can be saved.

We observe by the Mercury of Saturday morning that the High Sheriff of Newport County will to-morrow occupy two positions in the procession at the same time. A sheriff is of necessity to some extent ubiquitous; but that he is so to the extent set forth in the Mercury, is past our belief.

We are requested to state that the Custom House employees will treat themselves to a holiday to-morrow, and that the office will be closed throughout the day.

Read the advertisement of the Hop at Aquidneck Hall Wednesday evening, and at the same time lay aside that Quarter for the Concert by Gillmore's Band at the same place this evening.

The Providence Artillery will accompany his Excellency the Governor elect to this city to-morrow, and participate in the doings of the day.

There will be a public prayer meeting to-morrow (Election) morning, from 6 to 7 o'clock, in the Marlboro' Street Methodist Episcopal Church, to which all are invited.

The Fall River Daily Beacon will be distinguished to-morrow, having been sold to the proprietors of the Daily News, (that is to be) of that city.

GENERAL NEWS.

Great Britain.—A highly important notice has been issued by the Secretary of War. It is addressed to the Lord-Lieutenants of the various counties in the kingdom, and explains the condition under which the project is to be carried out. It is provided, among other things, that the volunteers will be liable to be called out in case of actual invasion, or the appearance of an enemy in force on the coast, or in case of rebellion arising out of either of those emergencies; and that while thus under arms the volunteers will be subject to military law.

Arrangements had been made in London for holding a public meeting (to be presided over by the Lord Mayor) to memorialize the Government in favor of the non-intervention of England in the continental struggle. M. Kossuth was expected to address the meeting, and speak in support of the course proposed.

The same activity was observable at Woolwich and other dock yards in the preparation of war material, &c., as during the very height of the Crimean war.

Troubles in Naples.—Letters have been received from Naples to the 5th instant. The emotion of the King on learning the situation of affairs in Italy has very much aggravated his disease.

A telegraphic dispatch from Messina gives an account of an engagement, or rather affray, between a regiment of Swiss and a body of 90 volunteers about to embark for Piedmont on board a Genoese brig. The latter, before leaving, gave way to some patriotic songs, and cries of "Viva il Piedmont!" "Viva l'Italia!" whereupon the Swiss charged them, killing nine; but in the melee, twelve Swiss were killed or mortally wounded.

Four hundred arrests have taken place in Palermo.

Mexico—Santa Anna.—A private dispatch from New-Orleans says Miramon's Cabinet had issued a decree restoring Santa Anna to all rights and titles which he formerly held in Mexico, and inviting his return via Tampico, whither Gen. Wolf is marching to meet him.

The dispatch also says the steamer Coat-zacoalcos of the Tehuantepec route has been attached by creditors. She cannot therefore leave to-day (Friday), with her California mails and passengers, for the overland route to the Pacific. It is thought in New-Orleans, however, that the matter will be arranged in a few days.

Papal Neutrality.—The neutrality of the Papal Government had been formally announced to the Austrian and French Governments, and formally accepted.

A dispatch from Rome says that orders had been sent to the Pope's Nuncio to leave Florence.

Fugitive Slave Case.—Boston May 26.—Some time since, Captain Crowell, of the brig Roberson, on the passage from Pensacola to Boston, discovered an escaped slave on board, who was forced from his hiding place by hunger. Capt. Crowell put the fugitive to Norfolk, from thence to be sent to his owner, in Pensacola. The fugitive, as is alleged, was chained to the capstan of the Elizabeth, which vessel got underway before the people of Hyannis knew of the circumstance. To-day, Capt. Crowell and John Orlando, mate of the Roberson, were brought before the Public Court, charged with depriving of liberty and returning to slavery one Columbus Jones. The defendants waived examination, and gave bail, in $2,000 each, to appear for trial.

The Pike's Peak Mines.—St. Louis, May 26.—A Mr. James Maginnis, of Lockport, New York, who has just returned from the plains, publishes a statement in the morning papers, denouncing the Kansas gold mines excitement as the most stupendous humbug ever perpetrated upon American people. He says it was gotten up by land speculators, and sustained by parties interested in frontier towns, and merchants with heavy stocks of goods on hand. The statement of Mr. Maginnis is corroborated by another from Mr. Van Ness, of Jackson, Mississippi, who positively asserts, that, after having prospected throughout the whole country, and visited all the claims and diggings, he saw no man who had made more than twenty cents per day, or found dirt yielding more than one cent per pan.

Terrific Tornado and Loss of Life in Iowa.—Chicago, May 26.—A destructive and fatal tornado visited Iowa City on Tuesday last. Houses, barns, and everything movable, were swept off. The track of the whirlwind was in a southerly direction, and it extended for 10 or 12 miles before its force was spent. As far as heard from, four persons were killed, and twelve badly injured. A family named Morgan, father, son, and grandson, were killed instantly. The loss by the calamity has not been ascertained.

BEARDS ROOTS OF THE EYES.—"There is an intimate connection between the nerves and muscles of the face and eyes," says the Boston Post, "and allowing the beard to grow strengthens the eye. It is said that surgeons in the French army have proved by experiment, in Africa, that soldiers wearing the beard are much less liable to diseases of the eye, and it is generally conceded that it is a protection from disease in countries where it is the custom to wear the beard, the eye retains its lustre and brilliancy much longer."

THE LOST DARLIN'.—This forenoon, a man in search of a child was hailed by a pond-rous Hibernian, who thrust his half-naked frame through the window of a dilapidated three-story wooden building. "Is it a child ye want?" "Yes," "He has fair hair, blue eyes, red stockings and smoke-colored gaiters?" "Yes," "Had he a plain dress and white shawl hat on him?" "Yes! yes! Is he up there with you?" "Ah, no, sir, but I saw his mother a while ago lookin' for the darlin'."—Pittsburg Chronicle.

The New Haven Palladium says that propositions have been made by the Austrian government for four hundred thousand dollars worth of the New Haven Volcanic Repeating Rifles.

A distinguished Italian of Boston, proposes to organize a company of one hundred of his countrymen now in the United States, for service in the present war of Independence in Italy.

The Jason Monument in New-Orleans, has risen to the height of 70 feet, and 70 feet more are required to complete it.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, May 27. It was decided in Cabinet to-day to supersede Postmaster Westcott of Philadelphia. Mr. N. B. Browne, will be his successor. This change must make a commotion in the Democratic camp. Postmaster took of Chicago, ought to go next.

The President leaves on Monday for his visit to North Carolina.

The contemplated changes in the New York Custom House, are mostly arranged, and will be made next week. Collector Schell spent a day in consultation here recently.

There are but five millions of dollars subject to draft in the Treasury, which is barely the margin required for working smoothly. Large sums in Treasury notes are coming in and being reissued. The amount now held by New York banks over and above, would absorb every dollar in the Treasury, and require two millions more.
